BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Submitted for sanction a set of draft bye-laws framed by the Minor Rent Council of Varanharajapur under Section 100 (1)(iv) of the Munt Rags relating to the Munt administration and states that no objections or suggestions were received therefrom.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

- Bye law no 1:- Prohibition from destroying any tree or and damaging any Munt (or) herds within the Munt limits. - The bye-law may be allowed.*
- 2. Bye-law no 2 relating to enclosure of vacant lands by continuous walls or fence. If the place is* is a dangerous one, the matter is provided for by Section 56(6) of the Police R. Fencing is one of the steps towards putting the land in a proper state and necessary action may be taken by an order ^{under} Section 131 of the R. Reg. instead of under any bye-law. The bye-law may therefore be omitted, as was voted in the case of the bye-laws of the Auckland Council.

3 Bye-law no 3:- Sawing of meat or fish:- This bye-law has been voted in the case of Auckland, as they have no power to impose such restrictions themselves.

4 Bye-law no 4:- Cropping of furrows in a public street or road:- This bye-law seems to be unnecessary, as the Auckland Council can take necessary action under Sec 122(1) and (2) or under Sec 125 of the R.

Reg.

5 Bye-law no 5:- Stopping of any cart or vehicle to stand in public road so as to cause obstruction to the traffic. This bye-law also seems to be unnecessary, as the Sec 122 of the R. Reg.
